

Nominating Committee, Supplemental Report
March 16, 2022

Motion: The Nominating Committee presents Michael Fitzgerald (RE, Hartford Street Presbyterian Church) to serve on the Committee on Ministry (class of '24).

Michael Fitzgerald's Bio:

Michael Fitzgerald is a member of Hartford Street Presbyterian Church, where he returned to God's fold, met his wife, was ordained as a Deacon, sang (and hopes to soon sing again) in the choir, teaches Sunday school, supports mission trips, and has been a Ruling Elder. He has served Boston Presbytery as Recording Clerk and as a member of Committee on Preparation for Ministry. He was ordained as a Ruling Elder at San Francisco's Calvary Presbyterian Church. He works as a journalist and recently left the Boston Globe Magazine to become editor-in-chief of Harvard Public Health. He was a Templeton-Cambridge Journalism Fellow in Science & Religion, and a Nieman Journalism Fellow at Harvard University. A native of a small town in the Midwestern Rust Belt, he holds an AB in History from the University of Chicago. After living in Millis and Cambridge, he now lives in Framingham. He and his wife have two college-aged sons.
